Reflections on Readings for the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

"And Over All These, Put On Love"

On this Holy Family Sunday, our readings focus our attention on the family model set for us by Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Above all, they were holy, living in right relationship with God and with each other.

Their life was one of obedience and respect.

Our first reading (Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14) can be summed up simply – Honor thy father and thy mother. It is a call for love and respect within the family that is as holy as the holy family itself. Sirach writes, "God sets a father in honor over his children; a mother's authority he confirms over her sons . . . Whoever reveres his father will live a long life . . . he stores up riches who reveres his mother."

In our Epistle reading (Colossians 3:12-21), St. Paul offers a lesson in the virtues that should thrive within all Christian families, "Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another; if one has a grievance against another, as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do." After offering this list of virtues, Paul put the icing on the cake, "And over all these, put on love."

In our Gospel reading (Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23), we hear how Joseph, being warned in a dream by an Angel, took his family and fled to Egypt to escape the slaughter of Herod. Then on the death of Herod, he returned to Galilee and settled in the town of Nazareth. All the while, they remained a family, holy and obedient to God.

With His incarnation, Jesus not only entered into the human family of God's chosen people, He also entered into a singular family, obedient and respectful of His mother and earthly father. The ethics and values listed in Paul's letter to the Colossians are those lived by Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. They lived their lives within the context of God's power and purpose. This is the example set for us today. While we may stumble and fall short at times, we can always desire and aspire to live as they lived. God will bless the effort.

Over the Jubilee Year,
we will explore the
themes of Hope,
Pilgrimage, and Jubilee, always ending with a question for you to consider over the week.

Today's Gospel starts a major pilgrimage for the Holy Family – from the comfort of their home in Nazareth to the unknown land of Egypt. The journey itself was certainly full of hardships, from living in an unknown land to speaking a new language, and yet it reflects the inner journey the Holy Family was taking from the chaos of a birth in a barn to the stability of the Kingdom of God. In this example, the physical pilgrimage was much shorter than the inner one.

Pondering Point

What chaos has marked your Pilgrimage of Hope through 2025? What is your hope of stability in the future?

Holy Beginnings Outreach

Cordially invites you to join us in prayer and conversation, for monthly gatherings of our LGBTQ+ community (family, friends, and allies welcome as well).

THE CALL TO FAMILY, COMMUNITY, AND PARTICIPATION

As a "Cradle Catholic", I learned early the principles of Catholic Social Teaching in my family, although I couldn't name them as such! But I saw them when my Mom made fried egg sandwiches and coffee for the hungry homeless men who came to our door and when she served on the parish council. Or when my Dad ran for public office in my hometown or when we all cared for my grandfather for months when he lived and died in our home. It was home where I was taught to share my gifts with others.

In college, I realized that teaching was my gift. This was the time of racial tension in our country, and I felt called to serve the poor - feeding those hungry for a safe, secure education in the Rochester City schools where I taught for 35 years. I was also called to lovingly serve as a wife and still now as a mother. After retirement, I served those hungering for mercy and justice in Monroe county jail. I then served those hungering for a deeper relationship with God at the Mercy Spirituality Center. And now I serve here at St. Rita's on the Racial Justice committee and in the Rochester Hope ministry. Whether we're 8 or 80, I believe we are called to share our God given gifts.

I wonder what God will ask of me next.

By: Jean Galofaro
